FOREWORD

We, the editorial staff, selected as the crew of 1933 present to you this yearbook containing the record of the events of our interesting and successful voyage.

With each new day come new events. After a lapse of several years it is impossible to distinguish between the events of one year and the records of the next. We have attempted in this book to give you a record of the enterprises and activities in which the students of the Wahpeton High School participated during the year 1932 and 1933.

DEDICATION

To Miss Alice Persons, who has made our high school days happy with her songs, who has given us so much pleasure with our work as well as the most valuable instruction and guidance, and who has brought recognition and honor to our school, we gladly dedicate this book.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

IT was in the fall of 1929 that we became insignificant Freshmen launched on a sea of knowledge, unacquainted with the strange course our vessel chose to take and green to all the things we approached. We managed clear sailing with Alyce LeDuc as captain, Gordon Paape as first mate, and Kathryn Huppeler as treasure guarder. We held to our course and anchored safely in June.

After a three months' vacation, the class reassembled, made ready for their second venture and called themselves Sophomores. We were guided by Marion Field and Alyce LeDuc. Frank Peschel kept the log and guarded the gold.

By the beginning of the third year, we had become brave and fearless seamen, ready to break the waves that we encountered. Some members of our crew mutinied and left the ship with the Class of 1932. We succeeded in adding a few as we stopped at some of the ports. Winnifred Agnew was at the helm as president and Gordon Paape was her first mate. Agnes Osen kept the pirates away. "The Ghost Bird" was the dramatic production of the Juniors. Twelve of our mates starred in the spooky roles. We ended the year with a prom for the seniors and it turned out to be a wild night at sea. The weather man shed tears on those who were leaving us.

Arnold Schultz guided the ship the past year with Carl Anderson at his call. Gertrude Schmitt counted money and kept the records. Clara Olson was named Valedictorian and Edna Bohn was elected Salutatorian. Norine Kent is the poet of the class and she has the privilege of reading her work at the Class Day exercises. Carl Anderson makes prophecies concerning his mates and Alyce LeDuc will bequeath the earthly possessions to those who remain behind.

The Seniors cooperated in the assemblies and the class parties of the year. Carl Anderson, Gertrude Schmitt, Lilas Smith, Margaret Jones and James Flatten served on the assembly committee.

"Apple Blossom Time" was presented May 5 as the Senior Class play. Twelve talented stars represented the class in the production.

Arnold Schultz, class president has served the school well the past two years in the role of athletic manager and he will be missed next year. Arnold has been active in the music activities during his four years. He has played violin in the orchestra and he has sung in the glee club, the octette, and the boys' quarette.

James Flatten captained the basketball team of 1932-1933. James has been a powerful force on the football field and the basketball court. He also is a musician. He sings in all the special groups and has appeared as a soloist.

Carl Anderson, Harold Connolly, Everett Kluck, Arthur Parker, and Paul Peterka, were members of the football squad the past year.

In girls' athletics, Alyce LeDuc, Gertrude Schmitt, Norine Kent, Violet Williams, Kathryn Huppeler, Margaret Connolly, and Lillian Parker were outstanding and their services will be missed.

Ten girls leave the glee club because of graduation. Valeria Ambrosich, Winnifred Agnew, and Bernice Rustad soloists also go with the Class of 1933. Helen Claesson talented pianist leaves too. Janet McMichael and Mona Hoffmann, the twin sisters that play duets as only they can play them, will not appear on future programs for the high school.

Carl Anderson who has gained a great deal of recognition for his musical ability both as a singer and as a violinist is of this year's class.

Nineteen seniors have been active playmakers the past year. Mildred Olson, Edna Bohn, Janet McMichael, Mona Hoffman, and Clara Olson have been the Rotary Honor students this year.

Bernice Rustad, Kathryn Huppeler, Winnifred Agnew, Agnes Osen, Janet McMichael, and Mona Hoffman leave six places in the Pep Squad to be filled next year.

And so ends our journey of the last year. We receive diplomas as first class sailors and will start our next year on different ships on voyages to Success.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE Junior Class was organized early in the year with Miss Whitney as sponsor. Class officers elected were: Janet McMichael, president; Alex Strand, vice-president; Lucille Jacobsen, secretary and treasurer. At the close of the first semester, Janet McMichael decided to finish in three years. Alex became president but he resigned and Corinne Mathieson was elected president of the class. "It Happened in Hollywood" was the name of the play the class gave under the direction of Miss Kunde. Gordon Bute was named Captain-elect of the 1933 football team. Juniors who took part in athletics this year were: Gordon Bute, Gilbert Freidericks, Harvey LaMusga, George Lindstrom, Leon Oliver, Frank Peschel, Alex Strand, Clifford Worner, Robert Wilson. In girls' athletics, Lucille Jacobsen, Rosella Rieke, Grace Reeder, Rosemary Tryba and Dorothy Hanson represented their class in basketball. In volleyball, Irene Evenson, Rosemary Tryba, Helen Nairn, Mary Snider, Florence Simonsen, Adele Rowley, Marguerite Hinds, Ruth Erickson and Mildred E. Olson were out for the class team. Geraldine Moore, Dorothy Hanson, Clifford Worner, and Melvin Bechtel are members of the High School Octette. Members of the Girls' Sextette are Dorothy Hanson, Irene Evenson, and Geraldine Moore. Clifford Worner sings in the Boys' Quartette. Marguerite Hinds' reading "The Fall of Georgie Bassett" was awarded second place in the High School Declamation contest. The Juniors sponsored three assemblies this year. Lucille Jacobsen, Lucille Madsen, and Harvey LaMusga were the members of the assembly committee. The Junior members of the Pep Squad were: Grace Reeder, Louise Rehm, Elma Keating, Lucille Jacobsen, Geraldine Moore, Freida Elmore. Corinne Mathieson and Dorothy Hanson were the high school cheer leaders. The Juniors sponsored two parties this year. The Twin City Night Hawks furnished the music. Their last big activity of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme of the prom was a Japanese garden scene. Lattice work with cherry blossoms and Japanese lanterns formed a beautiful setting for the Juniors and Seniors in their farewell party of the year. The Twin City Night Hawks played.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

THE Sophomore class sponsored by Mr. Hans began the year by electing the following officers: Mildred Lindenberg, president; Georgene Reeder, vice-president; and Gordon Bailey, secretary and treasurer.

The Sophomores sponsored two high school parties this year and three assemblies. Jeanne Smith, Benjamin Barnard and Arnold Becker were members of the assembly committee.

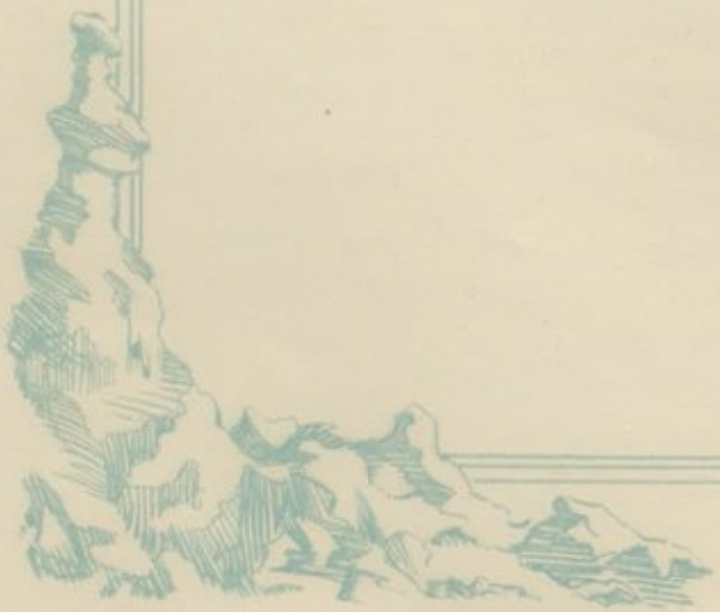
Helen Paul has been active in declamation work the past year. She was awarded first place in the High School Declamation Contest this spring. She read "His Doctor." Garfield Youngquist and Lowell Caulkins took part in the Christmas pageant, "Why the Chimes Rang." Kaia Jerdee, Dorothy LeDuc, Georgene Reeder and Jeanne Smith are singing in the High School Glee Club.

Orland Butcher, William Muske, Kenneth Ponath and Lois Davies took part in a German play presented in the assembly under the direction of Mr. Hans. Dorothy LeDuc is a member of the High School Quartette. Harvey Rife and Orland Butcher were awarded football letters. Harvey Rife made a name for himself in basketball this year. He received a letter in this sport.

Kathryn Rickert played on the girls' all high school basketball team. Kathryn has proved valuable as an accompanist at many of the assembly programs. Lila Erickson has accompanied on different occasions.

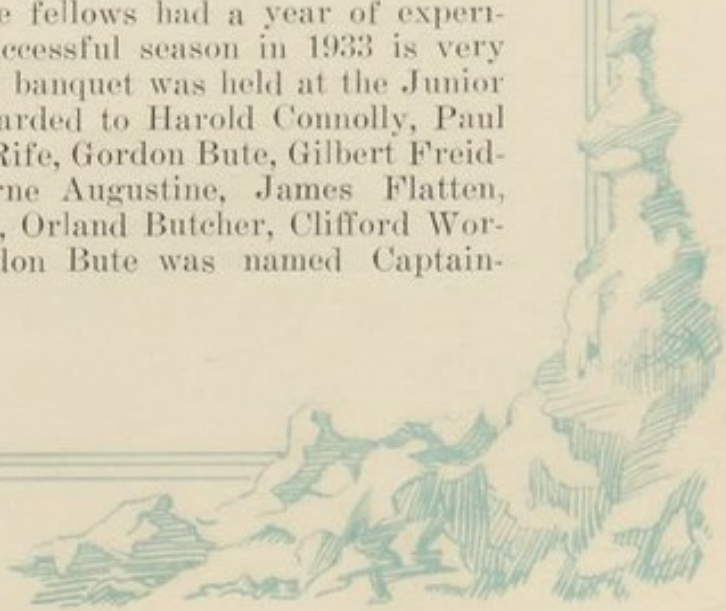
Mildred Lindenberg, Mary Jane Riley, Margaret Murray and Helen Paul made up a tap chorus instructed by Miss Severtson.

Our first year in the Senior High School has been an eventful one and we hope that the remaining two years will be as pleasant.



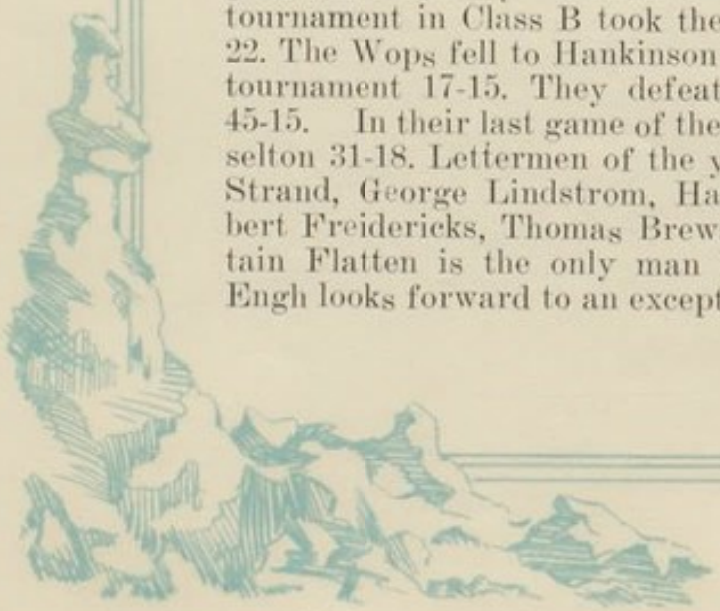
FOOTBALL

THE opening night of football practice brought out thirty two young candidates, each man eager to get a permanent berth on the regular eleven or wear out his equipment in the trying. Competition was keen throughout the season and no player could "rest on his laurels" for he was kept on his toes by others who wanted his job. The boys, true to their name, "Fighting Wops" in spite of ineligibilities and injuries went through fighting and hoping for the best. Shortly after school started, Coach Engh sent his boys against the Indian school and came out on the long end of the score 13-0. A good season was predicted. The following week the boys encountered difficulties with the fast and aggressive Fargo team. Fargo won with an 18-0 score but there was a question in the minds of the fans who saw that game how Fargo got that score. All three touchdowns were close, too close in fact to be convincing. Moorhead was next on the list and they too downed the Wops 20-0. Moorhead presented a light flashy team and on several occasions "out foxed" the locals with their bag of tricks. The good old dope bucket got all riled up when the Cowboys from across the creek were encountered. The Wops were defeated 6-0. The boys played their traditional rivals off their feet but were prevented from scoring on various occasions by fumbles and penalties. The Cowboys scored their only touchdown when they recovered a fumble behind the Wop goal line. The next week the boys made their first trip when they met Hankinson and were held to a tie score of 6-6. On a dark dismal Friday, half snowing, half raining, the boys took the Golden Tornado of Oakes into camp by a 13-6 score. The final game of the season was played with Fergus Falls. Fergus had a heavy fast team the past season and they led the Wops by a 27 point margin. The annual Armistice Day game with Breckenridge had to be postponed because of bad weather. A spring game was arranged. During the season, the Wops suffered severely from ineligibilities and injuries. The fellows had a year of experience and the outlook for a successful season in 1933 is very promising. The annual football banquet was held at the Junior High School. Letters were awarded to Harold Connolly, Paul Peterka, Alex Strand, Harvey Rife, Gordon Bute, Gilbert Freidericks, Thomas Brewster, Verne Augustine, James Flatten, Leon Oliver, Harvey LaMusga, Orland Butcher, Clifford Worner, and Loren Umbreit. Gordon Bute was named Captain-elect for the 1933 team.



BASKETBALL

WITH the loss of five of the 1931-1932 team, Coach Engh was forced to build his team up of green and inexperienced material. After a few weeks of practice, the boys met the Indians in a slow ragged game. The Indians won easily with the final score 27-18. On December 12, the team went to Wyndmere and defeated the Wyndmere squad in another poor ball game 18-17. Fairmount defated the locals the following week 17-22. The Wops turned tables on the Lidgerwood quint and came out on the long end of a 42-10 score with Rife and Brewster "on" and doing most of the scoring. During Christmas vacation, the Wops played an alumni team headed by Arnold Bernard and Wilbur Kohnke of last year's lineup. The alumni won 38-17. The Wops regained a little of their lost confidence by defeating Hankinson 30-19 and the following week they won from Wyndmere 50-13. The next week the boys went to Fargo where they met the strong experienced Midgets and came home to tell of their defeat 55-10. In the next two weeks, the fellows registered two more victories. The first was the Fergus Falls game in which Rife was the individual star scoring 23 of the 34 points against the Fergus count of 18. Then the Wops met the Hi Liners of Valley City and defeated them 17-11. The boys had a real vacation for they were forced to take two days because of inclement weather. On January 31, the Wops took a set back from the old friends across the river. The Wops outplayed their opponents but were unable to control the score and lost 21-24. February 3, the Wops defeated Oakes with Brewster leading his team mates to a victory of 39-15. The next two weeks were bad ones for the Wops. Fergus sought revenge and were successful in taking a game 19 13. In the most exciting game of the season the Cowboys again defeated the locals 18-16 on their floor. Then the team went to Hankinson on February 28 and without any trouble took the game 25-15. The powerful Fairmount Five who won the state tournament in Class B took the next game from the Wops 35-22. The Wops fell to Hankinson in the first game of the district tournament 17-15. They defeated Leonard the next morning 45-15. In their last game of the tournament, they defeated Casselton 31-18. Lettermen of the year were: James Flatten, Alex Strand, George Lindstrom, Harvey Rife, Gordon Bute, Gilbert Freidericks, Thomas Brewster, and Robert Wilson. Captain Flatten is the only man lost by graduation and Coach Engh looks forward to an exceptionally fine season in 1933-1934.



GIRLS' ATHLETICS

UNDER the direction of Coach Engh this year, the girls' basketball team played several games. The regular lineup was: Gertrude Schmitt, Kathryn Rickert and Alyce LeDuc, forwards; Norine Kent, Violet Williams, Margaret Connolly and Dorothy LeDuc guards. Gertrude Schmitt was the star performer of the court in the role of forward. Many of her shots were uncanny. Kathryn Rickert had a quick get away and a little experience will make her one of the best players that the high school has had in many years. Alyce LeDuc, tall center, saw action in every game. The guards were strong and showed the necessary fight in every contest. The girls played four interscholastic games. Their opponents were Fairmount, Hankinson, St. John's and the Indians.

The Class tournament was held at the beginning of the season and the Seniors were acclaimed the championship team. Members of the team were Gertrude Schmitt, Alyce LeDuc, Kathryn Huppeler, Norine Kent, Violet Williams, and Lillian Parker.

More interest was shown in volleyball this year than in any year previous. Two games were played with the Indians. The high school girls won the first series and the Indians won the second series. The class tournament was interesting and exciting. The championship team of the Senior class was made up of Kathryn Huppeler, Alyce LeDuc, Clara Olson, Lillian Parker, Gertrude Schmitt and Violet Williams. At the close of the tournament an all high school team was named. The honored girls were Rosemary Tryba, Violet Williams, Alyce LeDuc, Charlotte Braun, Irene Evenson, and Ruth Simonsen. Caroline Frankfurth, Alvina Frankfurth, Kathryn Huppeler, Florence Simonsen, Gertrude Schmitt and Harriet Hedner were named on the second team.

A similar tournament was held in kittenball and a class track meet was scheduled.

MUSIC

UNDER the splendid supervision and instruction of Miss Persons the Glee Clubs and special groups have progressed rapidly. They have appeared several times during the year. October 31, the Girls' Glee Club sang at the Florists Convention. Later in the year they sang at the State Library Convention. The small groups have appeared on special programs throughout the city too numerous to mention. The big honor that has come to the school has come through our music organization. Miss Persons was asked to take her Glee Club to Minneapolis to represent North Dakota at the Bicentennial meeting of the National Federated Music Clubs that is being held from May 21-26. A boys' glee club was organized this year for the first time in several years. Members of the boys' group are: Melvin Bechtel, James Flatten, Loren Umbreit, Donald Canham, Arnold Schultz, Clifford Worner, Edward Anderson, Verne Augustine, Robert Callan, Harold Claesson, Glenn Hoppert, William Muske, Carl Anderson, Gilbert Freidericks. The boys sang at the Science School at an assembly and they appeared in the annual concert. Bernice Rustad, Dorothy Hanson, Lilas Smith, Valeria Ambrosich, Geraldine Moore, and Irene Evenson makeup the girls' sextette. The High School Octette is composed of Geraldine Moore Dorothy LeDuc, Dorothy Hanson, Winnifred Agnew, James Flatten, Melvin Bechtel, Carl Anderson, and Clifford Worner. James Flatten, Clifford Worner, Arnold Schultz and Carl Anderson are in the boys' quartette. Members of the glee club are:
